Privacy Notice (to be retained by the Consentor)

Who we are

Danske Bank is a trading name of Northern Bank Limited, which is a member of the Danske Bank Group (the Group). This privacy notice is to let you know how we will look after your personal information. Danske Bank wants to be recognised as a trusted financial partner and is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. We will treat your information as confidential at all times.

Under Data Protection Laws, we can only process your personal information where we have a proper reason for doing so, such as:

- it is in our own legitimate interests to do so
- we are required to do so by law i.e. a legal obligation, or processing is in the public interest
- you have entered or you are considering entering into a contract with us for a financial product or service
- you have granted us consent to process your personal information

A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information for example to prevent abuse and loss or to strengthen IT and payment security. We must, however, still treat you fairly and consider what is right for you. We only rely on legitimate interest as a reason for processing if our legitimate interest clearly outweighs your interest in not having your personal data processed by us.

Your Privacy Rights

You have a number of rights under the Data Protection Laws in relation to the way we process your personal data, which are set out below. We will aim to respond to any request received from you in relation to exercising your rights within one month from your request, although this may be extended in some circumstances in line with Data Protection Laws.

- You have the right to access the information that we, as a bank, are processing about you and to be told where the information comes from and what we use it for. You also have the right to be informed about how long we store your information and about those with whom we share your information. Your right of access may, however, be restricted by law, the need to protect another individual's privacy or consideration for the bank's commercial business strategies and operations. You must contact us if you want to see this information. Access to your data will usually be provided free of charge, although in certain circumstances we may make a small charge where we are entitled to do so under Data Protection Laws.
- The right to ask us to correct your information if you think the information that we hold about you is wrong or incomplete.
- The right to object to our use of your information, or to ask us to delete, remove or stop keeping it if there is no need for us to keep it. This is known as the 'right to object', the 'right to erasure' or the 'right to be forgotten'. There may however be legal or regulatory reasons why we need to keep or use your information. We may sometimes be able to restrict the use of your information so that it is only used for legal claims or to exercise legal rights. In these situations we would not use or share your information while it is restricted.
- You have the right not to be subject to automated decision making where it affects your legal rights or has an adverse impact on you, for example, the refusal of an online credit application.
- You also have the right to ask us to stop using your information for profiling for marketing purposes. If you have given us your consent to process your data and the processing is automated, you have the right to get your personal information from us in an electronic format that can easily be reused. You can also ask us to pass your information in this format to other organisations.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please write to the Data Protection Officer, Danske Bank, Donegall Square West, Belfast. BT1 6JS or contact us at: yourprivacyrights@danskebank.co.uk
